Good Government Advocate Adam Andrzejewski
(SAY: And-GEE-eff-ski)
ANNOUNCES RUN FOR:
GOVERNOR OF ILLINOIS

STORYLINE: Adam Andrzejewski declared his intention to run for the office for Governor of Illinois on Sunday, March 1, 2009. He announced his intention to run in his childhood home in Herscher Illinois in front of 30 friends and relatives.

He declared that the foundation of his campaign will open up the workings of Illinois government to its citizens. “We are going to put: ‘Every Dime. Online. In Real Time,’ so that every Illinois citizen can see how their government spends the taxpayers’ money” said Andrzejewski.

Andrzejewski continued by saying, “My candidacy is a challenge to the politicians and to the people of Illinois. Are the people ready for the reforms that will reverse Illinois reputation as one of the most corrupt and financially troubled states in the nation? I think they are.”
